Leading designers create stunning table arrangements inspired by Mario Buatta

On the evening of March 9, The New York School of Interior Design hosted a benefit honoring Mario Buatta and the school's new Mario Buatta Atelier. The affair was co-chaired by Hilary and Wilbur Ross, Anne Eisenhower, Bunny Williams and John Rosselli. Design Chair Richard Mishaan recruited fellow leading designers to create 32 spectacular Mario Buatta-inspired dinner tables for the occasion. "Mario Buatta is an institution," says Mishaan. "When my friends at AVENUE asked me to be design chair, I thought it'd be a great way to pay homage to him, as well as to the design world at large." Here, AVENUE is pleased to present an exclusive look at these creative works of art. ♦
